

Announcement of the Office of the National Security Council
On the Non-Acceptance of Gifts or Gratuities of Any Kind in the Performance of Duties (No Gift Policy) for the Fiscal Year 2567 B.E.

The Office of the National Security Council, realizing the importance of the transparency and the prevention of unethical benefits as well as the promotion of integrity and honesty values in accordance with the National Reform Plan on Prevention and Suppression of Corruption and Malfeasance (Revised Edition), hereby announces its intention to be the government office whereby its executives as well as all officials of all levels will refrain from accepting gifts, benefits or gratuities of any kind in the performance of their duties whether before, after or while in action, that will result in the corruption and misconduct in order to express their strong determination and commitment to the good governance practice which emphasizes on the maintenance of integrity, honesty, ethical, transparency and inspection and free from conflict of interest for the benefits and wellbeing of the Thai peoples and the Nation.

Issued on 11 April, 2024 (2567 B.E.)

Police General

(Roy Inkapairoj)

Secretary-General of the National Security Council